

Bohio Dive Resort, Grand Turk February 25-March 4, 2017

If you want warm sunny days, crystal clear water, white sandy beaches, a great atmosphere and some of the best diving in the world, look no further than Bohio Dive Resort, nestled among the palms in the island paradise of Grand Turk, of the Turks and Caicos Islands. The resort itself features free Wifi, refrigerators and cable TV in each room and personal dive lockers near the boat.

In addition to spectacular vistas from your beachside accommodations, this Grand Turk resort offers convenient extras — everything you could want for the perfect vacation on one idyllic site. Bohio features Grand Turk's only on-site dive operation, beachfront bars, a world-class restaurant, spa services and as much sun and sea as you can stand yet still retaining intimate and personal service. The old island word Bohio means “home” and you'll find their hospitality lives up to the name.

With spectacular Grand Turk diving right off of the beach or minutes away by boat, the dive packages leave time to enjoy other attractions. Whether you choose excursions to historic cays, water sports, wildlife encounters with whales or rays, sunset yoga, or colorful nightlife and cocktails, you'll soon feel part of the island lifestyle.

Grand Turk's depths offer a diverse underworld where colorful coral, spectacular marine life, and mazes of swim-throughs and trenches come to life. The island is consistently ranked among the top dive destinations in the world, and it's not difficult to see why. The Turks and Caicos have strict marine conservation laws and many dive sites are within protected marine park zones.

Bohio caters to diving guests with valet dive services and friendly, professionally-certified staff. Enjoy the convenience of organizing diving adventures on your oceanfront balcony and being picked up by boat just steps from your room. With white sandy beach sloping gently to an exhilarating drop-off, you can spend time exploring the shallow depths and dramatic coral wall that plunges into the mile-deep Columbus Passage 300 yards offshore — sure to create a rush for even the most experienced diver.
