

Tobermory, Canada

September 4-7, 2020

Only a four-hour drive north of Toronto is Canada's first National Marine Park, the Fathom Five National Marine Park AKA the Shipwreck Diving Capital of Canada! Located in the town of Tobermory, a sliver of land cutting into Lake Huron and defining Georgian Bay.

The area between Lake Huron and Georgian Bay is peppered with reefs and subject to sudden and radical weather shifts. In the age of sailing, that meant Tobermory was a virtual ship graveyard. What's perhaps most remarkable about scuba diving in Tobermory is the wrecks' pristine condition.
