

Truk Lagoon

April 24 – May 1, 2021

Diving in Truk Lagoon is an adventure you will never forget. Dozens of visually dazzling WWII wrecks are scattered across 77 square miles. The wrecks are covered with marine life, stem to stern. There are more than 300 varieties of hard & soft corals. This Truk liveaboard will show you tons of life, amigos! On the outer reef you'll find mountains of coral that stretch as far as the eye can see, & drops off into the abyss. Here it is not unusual to see pelagic sharks. This is also where we do our exciting shark dive. The water temperature ranges from 82 to 84 degrees Fahrenheit.

You will be able to do two dives before lunch on most calm-weather days. During lunch we usually move to a new site. After lunch you have the option to either do another dive, or relax on the either of the sundecks or in the privacy of your own stateroom. A late afternoon dive is also offered. After dinner you may choose to do a night dive or simply hang around the salon.
